The ballots are counted, the story is in, the candidates know their luck, and some came through with a winner's stride, and others simply got stuck. And that's the trouble with politics, folks wear out their patience and shoes, and find on the day that the ballots are counted, somebody has to lose. And there is no second prize offered it seems and honorable mention is cut, if you want to be paid off you must be right there, and simply thereabout. So somebody loses and somebody wins, and this is what I want to say, the race is over for a little while, and it's 86 today.

Regulars Win In Philadelphia G. O. P.

Insurgents Are Routed Tuesday

Vote Is One Of Lightest In Memory Of Political Observers

JUDGE PARKER GIVEN SUPPORT

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Philadelphia's regular Republican organization won a bitter factional fight for party control by a 50,000-vote margin, complete unofficial returns in yesterday's primary election showed today.

The voting was one of the lightest in the memory of political observers in this city. The Republicans were estimated to have polled about one-third of their registration and the Democrats, without any real battle to create interest, to have polled approximately 100,000 out of an enrollment of 418,000.

Rout Insurgents
The Republican rout of the insurgent slate in the row office fight was led by Alvin A. Swenson, candidate of the city machine led by Chairman David W. Harris. Swenson won the nomination for controller over Austin Meehan, candidate of the faction led by William J. Hamilton, Jr., former state secretary of revenue. The vote: Swenson, 125,219; Meehan, 72,417.

The other Republican row office nominations were: Edgar W. Baird city treasurer; John P. Boland, register of wills; Dr. Herbert M. Goddard, coroner.

In the state-wide balloting for judges, the Philadelphia Republican organization apparently went down the line for Justice William M. Parker for the supreme court, helping to wipe out a substantial early up-state lead piled up by Earl V. Compton, Harrisburg attorney. Common pleas Judge Russell W. Carr Fayette county, supported by the Democratic state organization, was given a heavy vote in Philadelphia for that party's supreme court nomination. Judge Carr was opposed by Judge Samuel E. Shull, of Monroe county.

The Democratic city organization snowed under Democratic league candidates by 20-to-1 and 10-to-1 margins in row office nominations and nominated its judicial slate without formidable opposition.

STATE PRIMARY VOTE IN STATE IS LIGHT

Hamilton, Jr., while Democratic organization slates were victorious in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. In the latter city, however, independent G.O.P. forces backed by U. S. Sen. James J. Davis, upset the state organization candidate, with Harman D. Denny, great-grandson of Pittsburgh's first mayor, winning the Republican mayoralty nomination over George D. Wick by better than two to one. Denny will be opposed in November by Mayor Cornelius D. Scully, who received the Democratic nomination over John M. Huston, register of wills.

Small Vote Cast

One-quarter of the state's 8,139 elections districts gave the following results:

For supreme court (Republican) William M. Parker, of Venango county, 131,000; Earl V. Compton, Harrisburg attorney, 97,000. (Democratic) W. Russell Carr, of Fayette county, 78,000; Samuel E. Shull, of Monroe county, 64,000.

For superior court (Republican) Charles E. Kenworthy, of Montgomery county, 151,000; Arthur C. Dale, of Centre county, 68,000. (Democratic) Michael A. Musmanno, of Allegheny county, 112,000; Paul W. Mahady, of Westmoreland county, 33,000.

Both Compton and Shull gave their organization-backed opponents a surprisingly good race and for a time were leading.

In Scranton's mayoralty contests, State Senator Edward J. Coleman defeated three other candidates to win the Democratic nomination, while Howard J. Snowden won over four opponents to snare the Republican nomination.

An unusually small vote was cast in yesterday's election, with indications that perhaps as little as one-third of the state's more than 4,500,000 registered voters had gone to the polls.

In addition to the two statewide appellate court posts filled, Pittsburgh, Scranton and 20 third-class cities nominated candidates for common pleas judges and in 96 communities in 35 counties, local option votes were held on beer and liquor.

Just to live up to the tradition of the precinct, the second precinct of the seventh ward was first in to the polls with returns Tuesday night. At exactly 8:19 the precinct reported the score on the race for the Republican nomination for judge. Six minutes later, at 8:25 the second traditional rival, the first precinct of the seventh ward made a return.

First precinct election board to report at the court house last night with their returns from the election was the board from the third precinct of the sixth ward. The returns were in the court house at 10:10 o'clock. Claude Sisley is judge of the precinct.

Beyond all doubt, yesterday was the hottest primary election day in the history of the state. The mercury went to 95 degrees, one of the hottest of the summer, and folks working on the election boards were pretty well fagged out after they had completed the job of counting the votes.

It was hot last night. And the insects were unusually numerous. Men on the News were compelled to work with all windows in the building closed because the lights attracted such a swarm of insects when the windows were open, that it was more than annoying.

In a garden on Raymond street, there are quite a number of tomato plants that have been staked up, loaded with lovely ripe tomatoes. Some folks feared that the weather would get too cool for their ripening, but warm days like Tuesday and nights like last night will give us an abundance of ripened tomatoes.

Tuesday was the hottest day on which a fall primary has been held, for years. This had a tendency to have the voters move right along in their voting, not desiring to tarry long in the warm booths. On the east side, there is a large oak tree near one of the voting stations. This was much appreciated Tuesday, and some of the political workers enjoyed resting occasionally in chairs in the shade of old "oak" tree.

Apparently the heat drove one bridge party to the front porch at a North Hill home last night. Several "tables of bridge" were in play on one front porch, Pa. News observed.

On the McCalmont farm, at Harlansburg, on Tuesday, James Baile, of Harlansburg, shot a large turkey buzzard having a wing spread of seventy-one inches. Turkeys are raised on this farm.

New Castle folks were astonished this morning to see a slick looking mobile rescue unit of the Tarentum fire department speed through the city with its siren open. It had a woman passenger inside, who evidently was being rushed to a Cleveland hospital, as it was headed in that direction. The same kind of a unit here would give the local fire department's rescue squad some real equipment to work with.

EXPECT PRESIDENT WILL TERM SUB ATTACKS PIRATICAL

this government is likely to deliver to Germany in connection with these increasing attacks on American shipping rests, it is said, entirely with President Roosevelt.

From the standpoint of international law, however, the state department, on the basis of available information, regards all three attacks as flagrant violations of the rights of American and other neutral vessels freely to navigate the high seas.

See Condemnation

For this reason, officials in Washington believe the president will condemn the attacks as piratical. It would come as no surprise to those in close touch with the situation if the president decided to instruct the American navy henceforth to treat as pirate ships any Axis submarines found in the sea lanes between the United States, Greenland and Iceland.

The state department is awaiting full details from the three survivors of the torpedoing of that ship about 300 miles southwest of Iceland on Aug. 17. The American warship that picked up the three survivors is expected to reach Iceland momentarily.

Adrift Three Weeks

The first message received from the rescue warship indicated the survivors had been adrift in the Atlantic for more than three weeks.

Whether the crew of the Sessa, operating under Panama registry, were given an opportunity to abandon ship or whether the vessel was sunk without warning is not yet known. Twenty-four members of the ship, including an American citizen, are missing and presumed lost.

It is expected that more complete details concerning this incident will be available in time for the president's address to the nation on Thursday night.

The inclination in state department quarters is to let the president issue a warning to Germany rather than dispatch any diplomatic note of protest direct to Berlin over the attacks on the American ships.

SOME CLOSE RACES DEVELOP TUESDAY IN COUNTY VOTING

per cent of their registered vote and the Democrats about thirty three per cent. In short it was one of the tightest votes in the history of the county.

Lamoree Wins

In the race for the judgeship nomination in the Republican ranks District Attorney John G. Lamoree won over Judge Charles H. Matthews, Jr., by a vote of 10,287 to 8,314. Mr. Lamoree took a lead in early returns and increased his lead as the night went on. He carried both the city and the county outside the city.

On the Democratic ticket Attorney Raymond W. Humphrey of Ellwood City won over former Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand by a vote of 2,727 to 2,121. Mr. Humphrey carried his home town of Ellwood City rather commanding and to this lead added considerable more in the precincts in the south side of New Castle. Former Judge Hildebrand was strong in the rural districts and in the north side of New Castle.

Badger Wins Out

Clyde D. Badger, present chief deputy won a spirited contest for the sheriff nomination upon the Republican ticket over Jess C. Kennedy by a vote of 8,463 to 7,200. Former sheriff Edward D. Prichard was third with a vote of 2,675.

For the past two weeks political observers forecast a close fight between Badger and Kennedy and their prognostications were correct. Up until the early hours of this morning the lead saw-sawed back and forth but the Ellwood City vote came through for Badger in heavy proportions and he finished with a comfortable lead.

Ralph H. Ramsey was unopposed for the Democratic nomination for sheriff.

District Attorney

For the Republican nomination for district attorney the present assistant Leroy K. Donaldson was an easy winner. He started out with a rush and was never headed, getting 7,595 votes to 4,986 for Thomas V. Mansell, his nearest rival. Assistant City Solicitor Frank O. Moretti finished in third place with 2,950 and Gilbert E. Long received 2,620 votes.

For the Democratic nomination for district attorney James D. Kelley of Ellwood City had no opposition. For Register and Recorder, Orville Potter, now finishing his first term was nominated without opposition upon the Republican ticket, and on the Democratic ticket, Esperance Brophy of Perry township was unopposed.

George J. Forrest who is finishing his second term as jury commissioner was elected for the third term by the Republicans on Tuesday. In the case of jury commissioners they are elected in the primary, one from each party being selected although they are voted upon again in the fall but this is a mere formality. Mr. Forrest received 6,798 votes, J. Ed. Elder received 5,703 and Robert Garraway received 3,370.

In the Democratic primary County Commissioner Tad E. Shields was high with 1,707 votes, John C. Sickafuse who is serving by appointment at the present time received 1,670 votes and Wilbur Seh was third with 923 votes.

For county surveyor, W. Leslie Wilson was unopposed on the Republican ticket and Hugh M. Stewart was unopposed on the Democratic ticket.

One of the most important features of the geography of the United States is the Continental Divide, which is sometimes called the Great Divide. This is the watershed made by the Rocky Mountains. Deaths of the Day

Mrs. Katherine Ann Johnston

Mrs. Katherine Ann Johnston, aged 88 years, widow of Joseph A. Johnston, died at her home, 408 North Beaver street, Tuesday at 4:35 p. m.

Mrs. Johnston was born in Beaver county, a daughter of the late William and Susannah Freed, on April 7, 1853, the second oldest of a family of eight children.

Her husband preceded her in death July 25, 1918.

She was a faithful member of the Central Presbyterian church and Bible school. She was also a member of the Woman's Missionary society. Until failing health prevented, she was an active worker in the church.

After the loss of her sight about 16 years ago she learned to read books printed for the blind and the Bible became her constant companion.

Always cheerful, in spite of her affliction, she was a kind and helpful neighbor and a devoted mother who will be greatly missed.

She is survived by three of her six children: Mrs. Sara E. Fisher, Mrs. Anna K. Melvin and Miss Eva S. Johnston; three grandchildren, Bessie J. Fisher, Mrs. Katharine Bogue and Russell J. Melvin, and three great-grandchildren, Charles, Margaret and Elizabeth Fisher. One brother, Charles W. Freed of Johnston, Pa., also survives.

Funeral services will be held from the family residence on North Beaver street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. A. M. Patterson in charge. Burial will be in Oak Park cemetery.

James Henry Dodson

James Henry Dodson, aged 74 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary Pondexter, in Chewton (near Wampum), Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock. Death was due to complications.

The deceased was a resident of Wampum district for 17 years.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Mary Pondexter, and son, Samuel Dodson, both of Chewton.

The body is at the Pondexter home, where friends will be received until the time of the funeral.

Services will be conducted by Rev. E. G. Sallie, from the First Baptist church, Chewton, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in Clinton cemetery.

Komine Funeral Time

Funeral services for Boleslaw Komine will be conducted from his late residence in Wilmington township Friday, September 12, at 9 a. m. Later services will be conducted from St. Philip and James church.

Magnesium Plants Will Be Built

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The Defense Plant Corp. RFC subsidiary has arranged to construct and operate two more magnesium plants with a combined annual capacity of 112,000,000 pounds of metallic magnesium. Federal Loan Administrator Jesse Jones announced today.

Costing $16,000,000 one plant with an annual capacity of 36,000,000 pounds, will be built and operated by the Diamond Alkali Corp. New York at Painesville, O. Jones said the other will be operated by the Dow Chemical Co. on the Gulf of Mexico near Freeport, Tex. with an annual capacity of 72,000,000 pounds, costing approximately $52,000,000.

Jones said the aggregate of all plants now producing magnesium, new plants included, will be 274,000,000 pounds a year.

write-in vote showed Mrs. Brenner Dr. Cleland and Dr. Jackson getting the nominations. Mrs. Brenner received 211 Democratic write-ins Dr. Cleland 179 and Dr. Jackson 76.

By virtue of their dual nominations Dr. Cleland and Dr. Jackson have no worries in the general election, as they will receive the combined total of the Republican and Democratic vote.

There was no contest for either nomination for city controller. Sidney I. Lockley, now finishing his first term is the Republican nominee and H. Lloyd Rich is the Democratic nominee.

The results for election board contests and those for township offices was not tabulated as the amount of work necessary to get these would have handicapped the work of compiling the tables for the major offices.

Free Methodist Conference Ends

Only Two Changes Are Made

In Local District, Rev. Lindsay Re-Appointed

Sessions of the Oil City conference of the Free Methodist church have been concluded at Clearfield, Rev. L. J. Lindsay, of Adams street, being reappointed district superintendent of the New Castle district.

Only two changes were made among the pastors of the local district, Rev. Donald Woods, of Titusville, being appointed to the Dewey Avenue Free Methodist church, and Paul M. McGaffie, of this city, being named as supply at the Keeley Free Methodist church, near Wampum.

Rev. P. C. Millard was returned to the Arlington avenue church; Rev. D. E. Joseph was returned to the Coaltown church, and Rev. F. J. Hill to Ellwood City. Rev. F. W. Parks, who has been pastor of the Dewey avenue church, was appointed to Pleasantville.

Rev. Lindsay announced today that the first quarterly conference would take place at Keeley church on Friday evening, Sept. 12.

M. Marshall, were threatening to break the Democratic common pleas court slate in the county. In the sheriff contest, Robert J. Corbett was nominated by the Republicans to oppose Leo Abernathy, Democrat. Corbett, a former congressman, had the same Davis backing which aided Denny. His opponent, Thomas E. Whitten, is counsel for the county Republican committee.

In the coroner fight, Dr. W. D. McClelland was the Democratic nominee. John J. Loughran, the Malone candidate on the GOP side, was leading Blair F. Gunther.

The Democratic organization nominated its city council slate with no trouble. Robert Garland, veteran councilman, defeated in 1939, led the GOP ticket, the only highlight being the placing of O. B. Hannan, Young Republican candidate in the running at the expense of Lambert Turner, former Willie club leader. In the GOP judicial election, District Attorney Park led the ticket.

GIRLS CLUB TO HONOR MRS. PERCY P. MACNAB

At the regular luncheon meeting of the Girls Club, which will be held at the New Castle Field club on Friday afternoon, the group will honor as their guest a Californian, Mrs. Percy P. MacNab, who with her husband, are visiting for a period of a month, with New Castle friends.

Mr. and Mrs. MacNab are former residents of this city, and a series of parties and entertainments have been planned, during their stay here.

MRS. WM. J. WALTERS BIRTHDAY IS FRIDAY

Mrs. William J. Walters of 1114 Countyline road, who has been an invalid for nearly 14 years, will reach her fifty-second birthday anniversary on Friday, Sept. 12. It is learned today.

The many friends of Mrs. Walters will be pleased to learn of her anniversary and remember her with cards and messages of congratulations.

Mercer Bible Class

Members of the Mercer Bible class of the Highland U. P. church will gather on September 13 for a social time and business meeting combined, the hosts and place to be announced.

On a recent date the group enjoyed a winter and corn roast at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Book at East Brook. Hosts were Miss Jane Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. K. Ward Remond. After an appetizing menu was prepared and served, the group enjoyed a social period around the huge bonfire, the entertainment completing festivities.

Indiana Alumni

Members of the Lawrence County Alumni association will meet in the home of Mrs. Roy C. Foster at Plaingrove Thursday evening instead of last evening, as previously announced.

THE JUNIOR READING CIRCLE OPENS SEASON

In a popular downtown tea room Tuesday evening associates of the Junior Reading Circle gathered for their initial meeting, with a large attendance present.

Following the serving of dinner at 6:45 o'clock at a beautifully appointed table, centered with an arrangement of flowers, Miss Marian Ross, club president, brought greetings. Plans were discussed for their annual style show, which is the chief philanthropic event of the year.

Those in charge of the affair last evening were Fern Cloak, Jane Kannenberg and Mary Woodrow. On October 7, Mrs. B. H. Kannenberg, well known garden authority, will give an interesting talk on "Flower Arrangement". Hostesses for this date will be Margaret Griffiths, Martha Chain and Mrs. Kenneth Atkinson.

B'NAI B'RITH TO HAVE ANNUAL DANCE

The annual dance of the New Castle Chapter of B'nei B'rith of the A. Z. A. will be held at The Castleton, this evening.

All members and friends will spend the evening dancing to a program of pleasing dance melodies.

Jollikousins Meet

Mrs. Eber Houk entertained members of the Jollikousins club Tuesday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mae Eakin of Croton avenue.

Three tables of 500 were in play with prizes for high score going to Mrs. Robert McGregor, Mrs. Wellington Pulford, and Mrs. Charles Bishop.

Later members were served a delicious lunch at a table decorated with garden flowers. The hostess was aided in serving by Mrs. Cecil Eakin.

Next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Wellington Pulford of Woodlawn avenue.

MISS MARY CRISCI HONORED AT SHOWER

Honoring Miss Mary Crisci, a bride-elect of this month, Miss Angelina Colella entertained a group of guests Tuesday evening in her home on Lyndal street at a prettily appointed linen shower.

Cards claimed attention during the early period, and those fortunate in winning honor prizes were Miss Crisci and Mrs. Richard Heitsch. Afterwards, the assembly was invited into the dining room, where a novel miniature wedding scene was discovered adorning the large table where lunch was served. It was made up of a tiny town church with midge altar lighted with little white candles. The procession of bridesmaids was cleverly used as place markers, and the delicious repast was also in keeping with the nuptial theme. Miss Colella was aided by Mrs. Frank Christoffer, Miss Margaret McGowan and Mrs. Rocco Viggiano, with the menu.

Miss Crisci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Crisci of Croton avenue, will become the bride of William F. DeCarbo, son of Mrs. Charlotte DeCarbo of Lutton street, on Wednesday, Sept. 24.

MISSIONARY GROUP PRESENTS PLAYLET

Members of the Missionary group three of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Epworth church met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Harry McCurdy, Fairmont avenue, and an interesting playlet, "Love Gift," was presented. Those taking part were Mrs. E. O. Delancy, Mrs. J. M. Edwards, Grace Stitzinger, assisted by Virginia and Marjorie Delancy. Two articles were given from the "Methodist Woman's" publication, by Mrs. Orville Chain and Mrs. W. A. Thornton.

A business meeting was conducted later. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Elsie Hufford, Mrs. Elmer Delancy, with Mrs. J. P. Rentz pouring tea.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 7.

Amity Club Meets

Miss Mary Alop entertained members of the Amity club in her West Pittsburg home Tuesday evening, the session being the first fall meeting of the year.

Games were played during the hours and prizes went to Alma Rainey, Florence Carney and Rose Mooney. Judy Gorgas was a special guest at the meeting.

Plans were made for a winter roast in two weeks. Miss Alma Rainey will be the hostess for the clubs next regular meeting.

The meeting Tuesday night was closed by the serving of a delicious luncheon.

Kardette Klub

Members of the Kardette Klub were pleasantly received in the Hillside home of Mrs. Lawrence Kimminiken, who presided at their usual bi-weekly social event.

Tables of bridge were in play during the earlier hours, with Harriet Hemphill, Mrs. David Taylor and Mrs. Alton Gerlach winning the honor prizes. The hostess served a delicious repast as the closing feature.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks with Harriet Hemphill of Walnut street, who will entertain at a similar party.

MISS MABEL GROSS TO WED BURL PHARES

Mr. and Mrs. John Gross of 933 Maryland avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mabel Gross, to Burl Phares, son of Mrs. Orville Macon of the Harlansburg road.

The engagement will terminate in a wedding on Saturday, Oct. 18.

BETTY JAYNE SWAN WEDS ARTHUR HUGHES

Miss Betty Jayne Swan chose the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Swan, R. D. 1, Ellwood City, as the scene of her wedding Monday afternoon. Arthur H. Hughes, son of James H. Hughes of Volant.

An improvised altar of gladioli and mixed fall flowers provided a colorful setting for the exchange of vows, which occurred at 10:30 in the morning in the presence of friends and relatives of the couple. Rev. B. M. Wallace, pastor of the Center U. P. church, officiated with the impressive single ring service.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Sara Swan of New Castle, a cousin of the bride, sang "Sweetest, Story Ever Told" and "I Love You Truly". For her wedding, the bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a toe length white satin gown, with sweetheart neckline and lace insets.

Her fingertip bridal veil of illusion was carried with a crown of braided white satin. The bridal bouquet was of white Albatross and Maid of Orleans gladioli.

Miss Edna Hughes of Mercer, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor. Her gown was of embroidered red and white organdy and she wore a cluster of tea roses in her hair and carried a bouquet of matching gladioli.

Bridesmaid, Miss Olive Wallace, selected a gown of embroidered blue and white organdy and tea roses for her hair, and carried a bouquet of matching gladioli.

John R. Swan, brother of the bride, served as best man, and Stanley Rapp as usher.

Immediately following a brief congratulatory period, the wedding dinner was served for members of the bridal party at the home of the bride's brother, John R. Swan. Aides were Mrs. C. E. Taylor of Princeton, Mrs. A. Ollaster of Ellwood and Mrs. V. R. Hockanson of Beaver Falls.

Aides at the reception, which was held in the home of the bride's parents, were Mrs. B. D. Pritchard, Mrs. E. W. Swan of New Castle, Mrs. H. C. Griggs of Pittsburgh and Mrs. G. Gilbert of Toronto, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes departed late Monday evening for Washington, D. C., and points east. After September 15 they will reside at 228 Euclid avenue, New Castle.

The bride is associated with the Shenango Pottery and the bridegroom is employed with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN GROUP MEETS TUESDAY

Members of the A. U. R. Missionary society of Central Presbyterian church gathered at the Brenner home, at Rose Stop Tuesday evening, for their regular meeting.

Hostesses were Mrs. Clayton Hoffmeister, Miss Fannie M. Love, and Mrs. Edgar L. Thompson.

Mrs. Glenn Anderson was leader for the meeting and the national topic, "The Younger Generation," was discussed by Mrs. Robert A. Duff. Miss Theodora Pollock presented the foreign topic, "Milestone Under the Southern Cross—Brazil."

After a business meeting, conducted by President Mrs. Paul Shoaf, refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Maude Mitchell and Miss Allison Leslie.

Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. Anna U. Rudesill and Mrs. George Morrow.

Mrs. Robert Meade Patterson will be hostess for the next meeting Tuesday, October 14, in her home on Park avenue.

UNIQUE FEATURE MARKS MARY-MARTHA CIRCLE

Munching lunch from brown paper bags while the June of "School Days" was being played, provided a highlight for members of the Mary and Martha Circle membership when they gathered in the First United Presbyterian church Tuesday evening.

Preceding this feature, however, Miss Ruth Morrow led the devotional hour, taking for her subject, the theme of the New Wilmington Missionary conference, "More Than Conquered Through Him." Following, Miss Ruth Fehl and Miss Ruth Morrow, who were full time delegates representing the Circle at the sessions, gave a complete report of the conference.

Work was started on scrap books, which will be sent to the American Indian Mission at Tama, Iowa. Yuletide greetings were sent by the membership, to the Rev. and Mrs. Duncan Henry in Ethiopia and to Prof. and Mrs. Charles Stewart and family, in Dhariwal, India.

The next gathering will be in the nature of an "Indian Pow Wow" held in the church on Tuesday, October 7.

EASTERN STAR NO. 105 OPENS FALL MEETINGS

Mrs. Margery W. Brinton, worthy matron of New Castle Chapter No. 105, Order of the Eastern Star, presided over the chapter's first meeting of the fall season Monday evening in the lodgerooms of the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

Arrangements were made for a number of members to attend the district meeting and banquet to be held at Butler, October 9, when several of the officers of the local chapter 105 will take part in the program.

Plans were also completed for a "white elephant" party to be held in the Cathedral, Sept. 22, with Mrs. Vivian Dunlap, chairman of the refreshment committee, and Miss Helen Clark in charge of decorations.

Ruth Circle Meets

Members of the Ruth Circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church gathered in the home of Mrs. Myrtle Ray, on East Washington street, Monday evening.

Twenty-three members were present, in addition to a special guest, Mrs. Tad Brinkley. A business meeting was conducted by president, Mrs. Roy Williams. Mrs. Corydon Chrysler gave a review of "Methodism and the Shifting Population."

At the close of the business meeting, an informal social time was enjoyed. The hostess served a delicious lunch, assisted by Mrs. Sidney Lockley, Mrs. Harry Ward, and Miss Edna Armour.

Plans were made for a dinner to be held at the church, October 13, with Mrs. Corina Davis and her group in charge of arrangements.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

PARENTS CAN HELP IN HOME STUDY

Our children in school are engaged in very serious business. For them it has as much importance, or it ought to have, as your work and mine. The future welfare of children hangs pretty heavily upon their school successes now. Any reasonable thing that can be done at home to help them get along a little better in school, should be done.

Parents ought to do their best to provide them with good learning tools. Besides their text books, paper, pencils and the like, they need reference books. The average child above the third or fourth grade, attending a modern school today, frequently has need of such help.

Home Equipment

Perhaps the most practical home equipment for the school child is an unabridged dictionary and a good encyclopedia. There are several outstanding ones. Each has its merits. If you have doubts about your choice examine several of them or consult with your teacher or librarian.

Little children are continually asking us about things we do not know. If we are good parents we honestly go with them, even long before they can read, to find such information. How wonderful it is for them to see us in search of knowledge and to know that they have caused us to search. Out of such experience grows a richer comradeship.

Encyclopedia Learning Aid

Older children like to look up things with us in the encyclopedia. We inspire greater learning tool in them also, as we join them in these efforts.

Of course children could go to the library, but it is often not convenient to do so. We like to have them learn to study at home, anyway. For some children just the trouble of going to a library means that they will often neglect lesson preparation.

There are some parents for whom the purchase of an encyclopedia would be too great a hardship. But there are thousands of other homes with one, where the purchase would mean little or no financial sacrifice. A graded list of books for the child from 6 to 12 to read may be had by writing me at 235 E. 45th St., N. Y. City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it.

Solving Parent Problems

Q. What are some good ways to help the child who is a poor reader to improve his reading skill?

A. If he has a brother or sister, or even hire him, to read to this child to amuse him every day. If not, he might find one or several younger children in the neighborhood who would enjoy being read to. He naturally will read from easy books, the very ones he should read in order to improve his reading. Most of a copy of my "Home Helps for Poor Readers" may be had without cost, by writing me at 235 E. 45th St., N. Y. City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope and a three-cent stamp.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

PRAYER FOR PEACE.

Grant us, Oh Lord, the strength to hold
Thy truth against the blows of might;
The vision always to behold
The peace that is the fruit of right.

Grant us the courage, unafraid
To battle brutal greed and lust
And never welcome peace that's made
At the expense of what is just.

Teach us, Oh Lord, to understand
That liberty exacts its price;
That all that marks our happy land
Was bought with pain and sacrifice;

Teach us that peace for which we pray
Can never long endure
Till nations near and far away
From all the ancient hates are free.

Inspire in us the wish for peace
And bend our wills to brotherhood;
Hasten the day when wars shall cease
And strength be spent in doing good.

Daily Dozen

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

September is the harvest month, especially for the Grim Reaper. Many of September's victims die from infantile paralysis.

The cause of this disease is unknown. It is characterized by an acute infection. Symptoms often occur before paralysis appears.

Drowsiness, stupor, loss of appetite are usual symptoms. There is considerable irritation and restlessness.

A sore throat and fever are also usually present. Stiffness in the neck is an important symptom.

Tenderness over spine or in groups of muscles is often noted. Absolute rest in bed is of the utmost importance.

No disease requires earlier or more sound medical advice.

You can tell which people were not keeping their heads during the war. They haven't bought a barrel of sugar.

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 6:18. Sun rises tomorrow 5:37.

Again, the People Have Spoken!

You can safely bet that a larger outgo than income is near at hand.

Wouldn't it be a surprise to hear of some prospective groom announce his wedding date?

When a man gives his wife his pay check every week he either loves her or is afraid of her.

THE WAY TO STOP 'EM

"In speaking of the world's best entertainment," said Office Grouch, "did you ever listen in on a party line?"

The other day a man dialed a number, then put the receiver to his ear. He was greeted with these words:

"Minnie, you seem to have a busy neighbor, don't you?"

Then just for meanness, the man shot back with, "I have been trying to get the line for 20 minutes to call a doctor. Won't you please quit chewing the fat long enough for me to make the call?"

There was a clicking of receivers and two gossips hung up.

Granddad remarked:

"If she's a lady, she's no barfly. If she's a barfly she's no lady."

The postoffice is about the only thing that will make your pennies go a long way.

Nutting—Wonderful, isn't it, how nature provides so bountifully for the manifold needs of mankind?

Cutting—Yes, for instance, think how useful ears are to hang spectacles on.

Mrs. Dolcini—I can make a fool of my husband any time I wish.

Mrs. Pomotto—How do you manage to do that?

Mrs. Dolcini—I just let him have his own way.

Mrs. Stingo—You never take any good advice.

Stingo—No. If I did you'd be an old maid still.

The only way to escape the new income tax law is to get on relief.

When appointed officials show no respect for congress, we'd feel resentful if congress deserved more.

The only time some men can carry a tune is when they sing their own praises.

Pap declares up at the house half the time no one is speaking to anybody else but the cook.

COULDN'T SCARE HIM
The lady of the house on Second avenue heard a knock at the door. Looking through the screen, she saw a Chinese peddler. Not wishing to be disturbed she called to her maid: "You go, Ella."

The Chinaman blinked his little eyes, thrust out his neck and sung out belligerently: "You go, ella yourself."

It is claimed that as many as 200 or 300 flies may hatch from a single egg. The eggs should be swatted.

Strange as it may seem fingers lose their sense of feel when it comes to analyzing the "rough neck."

No man is quite satisfied with himself, and neither is anybody else.

Mother says Pap is that unlucky if he did succeed in reaching the end of a rainbow, the pot of gold would be at the other end.

Another way of saying your credit is no good is "I don't trust you."

them, how should I sign my name and should the notes be sent before or after the wedding?"—Bride.

Answer: The bride should send notes of thanks even to those friends of her fiancé whom she does not know. Sign your name "Mary Brown," omitting "Miss."

Such notes should be sent before the wedding—as soon as each gift is received.

Tomorrow—Restaurant Efficiency

Sapphira—How did you all like the new preachah, Mirandy?

Mirandy—We likes him fine. Why, dat man asks de Lawd fo' a lot ob things de other one didn't eben know he had.

ALWAYS THE SAME

Two dads used to get a big laugh when they'd talk about their daughters' washing pains.

Each dad had a young daughter—about 15 or 16—who would eat a meal big enough to satisfy the hunger of a tired man, and then walk straight to the day-night, lie down and complain to mother about having pains.

These two dads called them "dish-washing pains," because the pains usually vanished after mother had washed the dishes.

Now one of these girls has a daughter of her own and she is having the same sort of pains her mother had when she was in her teens.

Mrs. Nubridge—What shall we do tonight?

Nubridge—I'll spin a coin and see. If it comes heads, we'll go to the movies; if it's tails, we'll go out and dance; and if it stands on edge, we'll stay home and start a savings account.

Harriet—Have you ever seen anything smaller than my shoes?

Jack—Yes, your feet.

Sometimes we wonder why some people go to funerals. Whether it is because they loved the dead one or want to be sure he is buried.

Public improvements are being completed throughout the country cause hope the Indians may reconsider and take the country back when it is in shape again.

Cryeng—They say young James was born with a silver spoon in his mouth.

Holywinge—Well, he doesn't seem to have made much of a stir with it.

House Doctor—Now, when you examine a patient's lungs, what do you find?

Bright Intern—Why, the seat of his pants.

These days it would be a great relief to just know what to believe.

It takes a traffic jam tooter to horn his way through.

Climate is what you are promised by the resort advertisement; weather is what you get.

Elwood—My dog howls mournfully every night. What shall I give him, Grandpa?

Grandpa Guppy—Away.

Mrs. Youngbridge—Would you stoop to go through your husband's pockets at night?

Mrs. Oldhand—Only when Arthur comes home late and throws his clothes on the floor.

We have noticed that quite a few of the new preachers coming to New Castle are young men.

What the owner considers a fair price is just a little more than anyone is willing to pay.

Just now a lot of Methodist preachers don't know where they will be at after the conference. Some of them will not care where some of their knockers go to either.

Men who didn't know they had an enemy anywhere are being threatened with the return of the derby.

What's What At A Glance

Capital Guesses On Roosevelt Successor
Washington Sure FDR Wants Henry Wallace
Selection As ASPA Chairman Held Important

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—That President Roosevelt seems to have Henry A. Wallace in mind to succeed him at the end of his current term in the White House has been common talk in Washington ever since he forced the latter's vice presidential nomination at the last Democratic national convention.

His recent selection of Henry for the chairmanship of the new American Supply Priorities and Allocation board is regarded as leaving absolutely no doubt about it.

Next to the presidency itself, his position is rated as, at least nominally, the most important in the country. Most of the actual work will be done by Donald M. Nelson, the board's executive director. However, as chairman, Henry will get most of the limelight, whereas Donald will get all of the brickbats. He'll do the practical priority granting and allocating which will be all right as to concerns that get grants, but certainly will infuriate those that grants are withheld from.

Thus Henry's prestige will be enhanced by the president's designation of him for an exceedingly exalted position and at the same time, Donald will insulate him against the violent dislike of disappointed priority and allocation applicants.

If Henry wins the presidency, he may not be, for very long, a bit grateful to F. D. for having wished him into it. A good many prophets are forecasting that the 1944-48 White House term will be something terrible.

In the first place, the war may still be going on, and we may be in it.

In that event, some say they don't believe F. D. will turn his position over to his present understudy. They think he'll consider it an emergency compelling him to accept another four years of his own in the executive mansion.

If War's Over—

But suppose the fighting's just over. On such a hypothesis, it will be up to our first citizen to take the lead in creating the "better post-war" world that we hear so much about. All hands insist on the vital necessity for it, but nobody's at all specific as to the fashion in which the task can be accomplished.

It's explained that the correct prescription is to give the nations, great and small, each and all, a 100 per cent fair economic and political shake. But how's it to be managed? Are the "have countries" to be called upon to divide up with the "have not" outsiders? Both answers are left to the imagination.

It likewise is insisted that there's got to be disarmament. Ah, but that was tried in the 1920's, and look how it resulted! True, agree the "better worldings," but this time the aggressor powers will have to be disarmed first and so utterly that never again will they be able to reep above a whisper. What power, though, is going to admit it's chronically aggressive? No answer's heard to that query either.

Of course I'm going on the assumption that the democracies are going to lick the totalitarians. If not, other theory would be intolerable.

Ok, say the democracies win. If so, they win with Russia, and is Russia a democracy?

Quite a few prognosticators suggest that these problems will be pretty puzzling to President Wallace—should he get to BE president.

And, right here at home, aren't we due for an awful period of depression when today's conditions pass? Even if we don't get into the war the war stuff were turning out now will have no post-war economic value. It'll be just as useless as if we'd employed it to shoot with. And what about our taxes, to pay off the biggest debt in the world's history? Inflation also! Can we dodge it?

Outlook Is Glum

You don't have to talk with temperamentally pessimists to get glum rejoinders to these questions.

Leon Henderson's as loyal a New Dealer as they make 'em, and he's lying awake nights, trying to think up methods of heading off a post-war crash and then a spell of hard times such as the last depression was for resistance to.

Leon does evolve schemes, too, to experiment with.

But will they work when the time comes?

Nobody knows, for they haven't been tried yet, in actual practice. No such schemes ever have worked before in past history. However these of Leon's are new ones. He's hopeful, but plenty of critics have their fingers crossed.

So President Wallace, if that comes to pass, may not enjoy his term in the White House.

HAPPYGRAMS

by ERICH BRANDEIS

A policeman came into the office of a Troy, N. Y., businessman.

"Say, is that your car out there with the 'I Don't Waste Gas' sticker on it?" he asked.

"Yes, why?"

"Well, you've had it outside for three hours with your motor running," said the cop. "The doors are locked so I couldn't turn it off."

How about stickers and mottos in your office or home or on your car?

"Think," says a card on the desk of a fellow who just got fired for making too many mistakes.

"Home Sweet Home" reads the sampler on the wall of a home that was just vacated by a divorcee.

"Drive safely" warned the sticker of a wrecked car lying in the ditch.

Don't put up a sticker just because you like the taste of the muck-lake.

The World and the Mud Puddles

MUCH ALUMINUM

Americans not only showed their metal. They showed their mettle, too, in their eagerness to rally behind the drive to uncover a great store of aluminum in American homes. From millions of kitchens descended a grand, clattering shower of metal went to equip the drive. From the Smiths, the Joneses, the Grecks, the pots, pans and ice trays from the Johnsons, the Martuccis, the Hokamuras and the Joneses.

Their vast mountains of metal rising in the collection depots of a thousand cities, in stores, fire stations and street corners, made a resounding tribute to the spirit of the country. From all quarters, private and public, came enthusiastic aid. Civic groups and service clubs gave gladly of their time and help from coast to coast. Be it mass production, distribution or collection, count on America to do the job.

Advance estimates indicate all of twenty million pounds of metal was collected, a sum sufficient to equip two thousand fighter planes with all required aluminum. Who said the Smiths and Jones couldn't build airplanes?

However, this collection of aluminum caused some tragedy too, and perhaps a divorce, for Mrs. Jones contributed Jones' new aluminum putter.

What Noted People Say

WASHINGTON—Wendell L. Willkie, 1940 Republican presidential candidate, champions free speech and the free press.

"The rights of the individual mean nothing if freedom of the press and freedom of speech are destroyed."

ATLANTIC CITY—A. W. Hawkes, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, warns that labor "will be riding for a fall" if it ever assumes it must come first and disregard the right of a fair return to capital and management.

"Such a course if persisted in would destroy the mainspring of the enterprise system—would destroy the unifying force that stimulates men of genius into the creation of things necessary for the success of our complicated society."

MANILA—Alfred Duff Cooper, British government coordinator for the east, expresses the belief that Japan has waited too long to hope for any further southward expansion.

"If the Japanese wanted to move at the most auspicious time, they should have done so a year ago. Today we are in a stronger position in every way."

ATLANTIC CITY—George Meany, secretary-treasurer of the A. F. L., warns that labor will not surrender any of its rights.

"Labor will never surrender the rights we have as free American workers and the right of the worker to quit his job any time he sees fit."

BIRTHDAYS OF FAMOUS AMERICANS

(Compiled by Encyclopedia Britannica)

SEPTEMBER 10

1787—John Jordan Crittenden, statesman, at Versailles, Ky. After a career in Kentucky state politics he was elected to the United States Senate, where he served a total of 20 years. He also was a member of the House of Representatives for one term. Other public offices which he held were U. S. District Attorney, governor of Kentucky, and attorney-general in the cabinets of William Henry Harrison, Tyler, and Fillmore.

1839—Charles (Santiago) Sanders Pierce, philosopher and logician, at Cambridge, Mass. He introduced the principle of pragmatism into philosophy, defining his theories in a public article early in 1878. He originated the word as well as the idea. He made many valuable contributions to mathematical logic, meteorology, psychophysics and philology.

1867—John Spencer Bassett, historian, at Tarboro, N. C. He was professor of history at Smith college for more than 20 years. He edited many historical documents and wrote numerous books on historical and biographical subjects. He was an authority on the history of North Carolina.

TROJAN HORSE OF VAST PROPORTIONS

ALL other Fifth Column curbs are dwarfed by the mass movement into exile ordered by the Soviet Government for 390,000 German-derived inhabitants of the lower Volga region in Russia.

If it is true, as Moscow asserts, that in the German-settled district north of the Caspian Sea there are "thousands of diversionists and spies . . . prepared to cause explosions . . . at a signal from Germany," here is a Trojan Horse of heroic proportions.

Hardly less breath-taking is the project for removing them to the hinterland of Siberia. If the Moscow regime, with its transportation agencies already heavily taxed by the requirements of a major war, is unable to transfer these people by rail, the difficulties of the project will stagger the imagination. Russia's highway system is rudimentary at best.

It is an age of vast population shifts. Thousands upon thousands of refugees fled into France at the close of the Spanish war. The Nazi invasion of Poland, the Low Countries and France drove other thousands to seek new abodes. Hitler called back home vast numbers of Germans living in the Baltic countries.

But the uprooting of the Volga people for purported transplanting in Siberia represents just about the ultimate in mass movements of population. What the proportion of survivors will be it is doubtful if the world will ever know.

MORE ALARMED THAN THE BRITISH

Prices have been rising slowly but steadily on the London Stock Exchange. The average of leading stocks as calculated by the London Financial Time at the close of last week was the highest since May 3, 1940, just before the blitzkrieg was changed into a blitzkrieg. Prices of New York stocks, however, closed two weeks ago 20 points or nearly 16 per cent lower than on May 3, 1940.

London stocks have gone up 8 per cent since the beginning of the present year, and New York stocks have gone down 4 per cent in the same interval. British securities are 3 1/2 per cent lower than they were at the beginning of 1939, when it was still believed that the war could be averted. But New York stocks are down 18 per cent from the outset of 1939.

London is close to the war. What its market seems to be saying is don't you worry, there'll always be an England. The weakness and stagnation of our share market in the face of strength in the London market suggests that the state of jitter in this country is not due to war developments but to the alarmist talk in official circles, and repression of business enterprise by the national administration.—Chicago Tribune.

DEATH OF AN INVENTOR

The other day at Orange, New Jersey, Stephen Horgan died, aged 87. His name was not familiar to the nation and was known to only a few of the men of the newspaper profession, although he did more to revolutionize the newspaper in one line than any man of his time. Fame is still whimsical.

Sixty-five years ago Horgan, a photographer, watched girls making wall mottoes by threading yarn through holes in a cardboard. Seeing those holes as dots Horgan produced a picture on a metal plate and the halftone engraving process had been born. It presented a picture by dots. Until that instant no photograph had ever been reproduced in print, magazine and newspaper illustrations consisting exclusively of drawings.

The first halftone appeared March 4, 1880, in the New York Graphic. Of course, like most inventors, Horgan went up against a wall of disbelief. After he had persuaded James Gordon Bennett, publishing tycoon, that his halftone was feasible his head pressman told Bennett that any man who claimed that such a "cut" could be printed on a fast press was an "idiot." That settled Horgan's hash with Bennett.

But Horgan was to see his halftone process used all over the world on web presses, for he finally got Whitelaw Reid to try one on the first press of the New York Tribune. This was on January 21, 1897. The cut was a portrait of Thomas Platt, who had just been elected United States Senator from New York.

As long ago as 1924 Horgan sent a colored photograph by wire from Chicago to New York. It was a portrait of Rudolph Valentino.

LOCAL GIRL SINGS AT VOICE RECITAL

Miss Julia Johns, youthful mezzo-soprano, appeared in a recital given Tuesday evening by the students of W. W. Campbell in his New Wilmington home.

Accompanied by Paul Robinson, solo organist at Duke university, Durham, N. C., Miss Johns sang "The Wind Speaks" and "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from the opera "Sampson and Delilah" by Saint Saens. She also appeared in two quartets and in the popular sextet from "Lucia."

Attending the recital from New Castle were Mrs. Jay L. Reed, Robert A. Duff and Mrs. D. L. Ferguson.

Miss Johns, a former member of the New Castle Senior High school capella choir and the Highland United Presbyterian church choir, left today for New Concord, O., where she will enroll at Muskingum college to continue her voice instruction.

MRS. ROBERT VOROUS HONORED BY CLASS

Members of the W. W. M. G. class of the Third United Presbyterian church gathered in surprise fashion, Monday evening, in the home of their teacher, Mrs. Robert Vorous, on Morton street, to honor her birthday anniversary.

The evening was spent informally and plans were made for the annual "Goldenrod Day," which will be celebrated in the classroom next Sunday. All members and former members are welcomed for this meeting, when Rev. C. R. Thayer, pastor of the church, will be guest speaker.

President of the class, Clayton Bryan, presented the guest of honor with a lovely gift from the assembly, in honor of the occasion. Later, a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Claire Alford, Mrs. Clayton Bryan, Frank Hamilton and Albert Ramsey.

Special guests who shared in the event were Miss Helen Wallace, of Harrisburg, a former member of the class, Miss Kathryn Lewis, and Rev. Thayer.

SISTER IS HONORED WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Lucy Covert, Edenberg, R. D. 1, and her sister, Mrs. Carl Blattman of Letonia, O., gave a dinner party on Monday evening at the home of the former in honor of the birthday anniversary of their sister, Mrs. James Kerr of Dushane street.

Social chat was the diversion of the evening. The honored guest received a number of lovely gifts. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Agnes Early of Letonia, O., and Orland Covert and daughter, Darlene, of Canton, O.

N. H. B. KENSINGTON AFTERNOON MEETING

Members of the N. H. B. Kensington were received Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Paul Barber of Scott street for a social time, with Mrs. Louis Garret, formerly of this city and who has been visiting in Beaver Falls, sharing as a special guest.

The hours were spent informally and lunch was served by the hostess, with her daughter, Twila Barber, aiding.

In two weeks, Mrs. L. C. Houston of North street will entertain at her home.

Double Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burgess of 603 Court street announce the engagement of their daughter, Sylvia Lee, to Corporal George C. Engle of Tampa, Fla., son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Engle of Rebecca street.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgess also announce the engagement of their friend, Miss Greta Norton of 206 East Wallace avenue, to Arthur A. Haggerty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Haggerty of Wallace avenue.

The engagements were announced at an informal party Monday evening given at their home by Mr. and Mrs. Burgess. Rosebuds with cards containing the news "Sylvia and George—December 25, 1941" and "Greta and Pete—December 5, 1941" were the means of telling the guests when the young couples will be married.

The hostess was assisted in serving a delicious lunch by her daughter Lucy and by Miss Dorothy McConnell of Court street.

Women of the Moose

In their lodge room on South Mercer street, Chapter 8 of the Women of the Moose held their regular meeting on Tuesday evening, with Senior Regent Mrs. Helen Broadbent in charge.

A business session was held and plans made for publicity. There will be a chapter night program at the next meeting with Miss H. Margaret Davis, publicity chairman, in charge.

A delicious repast was served by Mrs. Thelma Phillips, Mrs. Elton Lucidore, Mrs. Josephine Perroti and Miss Theresa Fazzone.

The next meeting will be September 23, at 8 in the lodge rooms.

Farewell Party

Freddy Y. Gallo of Hillville was honored at a surprise farewell party Tuesday evening at his residence. He will leave on September 19 for duties in the U. S. army and will go to Fort Meade, Md.

Many friends were present for the occasion. Later, a delicious supper was served by Viola, Eleanor and Mary Creatore.

L. C. B. A. BRANCH MEETING THURSDAY

Members of the L. C. B. A. Branch, No. 407, of St. Joseph's church, will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, in St. Joseph's hall, and reports on the recent senate meeting held at Pittsburgh will be heard.

Plans will be made for the social fall and winter activities. A social time will be held after the meeting, featuring a white elephant party.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Frances Broschert, Mrs. Elizabeth Cartwright, Mrs. Ann Crowe and Mrs. Elizabeth Factor.

TU-NO ASSEMBLY AT COPE RESIDENCE

Members of the Tu-No club gathered in the home of Miss Frances Cope, 829 Lathrop street, on Tuesday evening for their regular session.

Election of officers took place with the following results: President, Mrs. William Riney, and treasurer, Mrs. Charles Henderson. The remainder of the evening was spent informally after a dainty repast was enjoyed.

On Tuesday, September 29, Miss Betty Kline of Dewey avenue will be hostess to the group.

Cameo Club Meets

Miss Dolly Ann Pierz, of 1012 Ashland avenue, entertained members of the Cameo club in her home Tuesday evening.

Cards were the main pastime of the hours with high score prizes going to Miss Sue James and Mrs. Stanley Nolay. Special guests included Miss Katie Miscimarra and Mary Martha Tepica.

A delicious luncheon was served at the close of the card games by the hostess, Miss Nellie Corio will entertain the club next, on September 30, in her West Washington street home.

To Have Outing

The Weigeltown Girls club and their families will have a corn and wiener roast Saturday, September 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt of East Brook. Officers will also be elected for the coming year.

Roosevelt On His Way Back To Washington

Will Confer On Situation Preparatory To Radio Address Thursday Night

By GEORGE DURNO
International News Service Staff

ABOARD PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL EN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON, Sept. 10—President Roosevelt was on his way back to Washington this afternoon to confer at the earliest possible moment with Secretary of State Hull, Secretary of War Stimson and Secretary of the Navy Knox about the highly important radio address he will make tomorrow night. World repercussions are expected from his delivery. As the Chief Executive left his Hyde Park home, where yesterday he buried his mother, White House aides disclosed that Mr. Roosevelt already had completed the text of this speech—and that he would take 25 minutes of radio time instead of the 15 minutes originally scheduled. He speaks from the White House over all networks at 9 p. m. E. S. T. Thursday.

If the secretaries of state, war and navy are available he will see them at the White House tonight. Tomorrow morning, the President will confer with congressional leaders.

Before leaving Hyde Park, Mr. Roosevelt had averted a nationwide railroad strike for at least 60 days by setting up a special fact-finding board of five members to inquire into the merits of wage demands of the 125,000 railroad workers. Fourteen non-operating unions, with a membership of 900,000, had voted to strike tomorrow; the five big operating brotherhoods had set Sept. 15 as the date for their walk-out.

The continental congress met in eight different places. Sessions were held in New York City, Princeton, Trenton, Philadelphia, Reading, York, Baltimore and Annapolis.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

BLUE TRIANGLE CLUB
Members of the Blue Triangle club will meet in the Green room of the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock, for a dinner party, this marking their initial set-together of the fall season. All officers and committee chairmen as well as members will participate.

G. R. ADVISORS MEET
Girl Reserve advisors of the Y. W. C. A. met in the club room there last night at 8:15 for their first meeting of the fall season.

After general announcements, all Girl Reserve clubs were recommended to draw up a budget for the semester, to include such items as welfare, social service, publicity, etc.

Of interest also was a discussion about how the size of the clubs can be reduced without destroying the Girl Reserves' basic democratic procedure.

The fall setting-up conference for Girl Reserves will be on Saturday, Oct. 27, at Camp East Brook. The planning committee for the conference, composed of two advisors, two members of the Girl Reserve committee, and two representatives from each club, will meet at the "Y" on Monday evening at seven o'clock. Miss Eleanor Homer and Miss Miriam Clinefelter will be the advisors' representatives.

The Girl Reserve council, composed of two representatives from each Girl Reserve club, will meet on the first Saturday of each month.

The advisors will meet once a month to discuss leadership as suggested by Grace Loucks Elliott's new book, "Understanding the Adolescent."

Mrs. Robert A. Eckles, chairman of the Girl Reserve committee, and Miss Kathryn Hannon, sports counselor at Camp East Brook this summer, were special guests at this meeting.

Edwin Everett, the noted Massachusetts orator who preceded Abraham Lincoln at the dedication of the Gettysburg Cemetery in Nov. 1863, spoke for two hours. Lincoln then made his famous Gettysburg Address in about two minutes.

Rescue Squad Is Kept Busy

New Castle Firemen's Rescue Corps Answers Many Calls First Month

BETTER MOBILE UNIT IS NEEDED

During the month of August the New Castle fire department rescue squad answered 20 ambulance calls and in addition men from different stations were called upon to treat minor cases which did not require ambulance service.

Three persons were treated for severe burns, the foile oil spray treatment being used, which gave immediate relief until the victims could be removed to the hospital for further treatment.

Two persons who suffered broken legs had the injured members placed in splints before being taken to the hospital, thus removing the shock of being moved, and the men who performed these jobs were commended by the attending surgeon who took care of the case later.

The service being rendered by the department has attracted widespread attention and has been most favorably commented upon by the local hospitals, doctors and others to whose attention it has been brought.

Not enough money was secured in the initial drive for a new ambulance, and it is expected to renew this effort in the near future. At the present time the rescue squad is using a second-hand car which was discarded by a local undertaker, but outside its mobile unit the equipment with which it is furnished is of the highest order.

On September 2 the rescue squad rendered an outstanding service at Rock Springs in rescuing the victim of a truck crash, who was pinned in the cab and burned to death.

In addition, the ambulance was sent to the New Castle fair, the Old-Timers' picnic, and the state police rodeo, and will be available in the future at any such events.

The rescue squad, with its mobile unit, is filling a long-felt need in first aid work here, and will find more use as the public becomes better acquainted with the splendid service which the corps is rendering.

Disbursements from the liquid fuels tax fund for the month of August amounted to $242.70 according to a compilation made by County Controller Frank W. Hill. Of this amount $33 was for labor and trucking, $69.70 for lumber and materials, $125 salary, and $15 for repairs in maintenance of road.

From the institution fund $5769.53 was disbursed. This was divided as follows: Administration, $423.06; County Home, $1394.87; County farm, $1028.99; County insane, $40.50; Outdoor relief, $2859.03.

There is a lot of sleep to be made up by some of the court house people. The commissioners' office, treasurer's office and controller's office were open all Tuesday night and the men in charge show it.

Steel has been promised for the addition to the court house within the next few days. Architect Harry M. Wirsing stated Tuesday and the work of raising the steel should start soon.

The foundation is in and with good weather, the addition should be ready for occupancy by the first of the year.

Casillo And Fox Trail Indian Lore

There are many interesting things to be found in the vicinity in which we live, if we but view from the beaten path.

A few evenings ago, N. R. Casillo, of Winter avenue, and Owen Fox, city forester, were in the neighborhood of the Big Run, near the First Mill Road. Here they viewed a bit of old Indian lore. Growing along the banks of the water, a large sycamore was found, which in Indian days was a young sapling, that the Indians had used for a trail marker.

The Indians had bent this sapling over, in the long ago, pegging the top near the ground. As the tree grew, it formed a large arch, which sent long limbs or branches skyward. After many years, this old tree still stands, leaving a silent monument to a race that lived in the great outdoors, and have disappeared from this part of the country.

Miss Helen Rodgers of Sayville, L. I., where she has been a teacher in the high school for several years, Pulaski schools started on Sept. 2.

At the regular meeting of the Women's Benevolent Association Review No. 201 an invitation was accepted from Mrs. William Lewis and Mrs. Selma Lewis to a corn and wiener roast at their home on Thursday evening. A social evening was enjoyed and a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Charles Garrett.

Rev. James G. Cousins, pastor of the Methodist church, left on Tuesday to attend the annual Erie conference which meets at Allegheny college, Meadville, this week.

James Black, a representative from the Methodist church with Mrs. O. J. Mauck of the Mahoning Methodist left Wednesday morning to spend several days attending the conference in Meadville.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Grell entertained at a pretty appointed family dinner at their home on Saturday evening in honor of their father, Ernest Eizott, celebrating his birthday anniversary. At 6 o'clock a delicious chicken dinner was enjoyed at a beautifully arranged table, 14 being present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

With the coming of fall, our migrating birds go into a silent and retiring state. After the season of rearing young is over, many of the highly colored plumaged birds seek the quiet and stillness of the deep woods, where they moult in preparation for taking on their new plumage. Then they are ready to begin their long flight to the south lands, where these birds will appear in their gaudy dress, as they do here, in the spring.

The robins have ceased their all day singing, and can be seen winging about the trees in a restless manner, acting like humans, when about ready to take an outdoor vacation.

The night hawks' time in the autumn is lessening—they have stopped their long night diving and fly about in lower altitudes, because the insects upon which they feed are disappearing because of the cool nights. Their night cry is also silent

CONQUERED NATIONS FACE FAMINE

That the people of Europe's conquered countries cannot look to their German overlords for food this winter, is indicated in the statement of a Nazi government spokesman who said Germany "rejected all responsibility for feeding the populations of occupied countries." England and the United States, he said, must accept such obligation and responsibility. Pictured above are French refugee children and oldsters enjoying a scanty meal which may become far scantier with the coming of dreaded winter.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Local Board Is
First To Report

Second Precinct Of Seventh Ward Makes Report To News At 8:20 O'clock

Mahoningtown's second precinct board was the first to report its election returns to The News again on Tuesday evening, keeping up its excellent record of many years for promptness.

The board members made their first call to The News at 8:20 o'clock with a report on the Republican judge fight, giving 53 votes to Matthews and 49 votes to Lamoree.

This same board also made the second report, coming in again at 8:25 with the Republican sheriff results, giving Badger 61 votes, Kennedy 27 and Pritchard 23.

NEED TRAFFIC LIGHT

Residents of the Seventh Ward believe that a traffic light placed at the intersection of Washaw avenue on North Liberty street, would do a great deal to solve the speeding problem along this much traveled street.

PREPARING DRIVES

Many local residents are at work at the present time, building substantial drives to their garages, in preparation for the approaching winter months. Some are making ash drives, while others are constructing black top driveways.

PARK AT STATION

More than one gas station owner in the Seventh Ward has reported coming to work at 7 o'clock in the morning and finding motorists parked waiting to buy a supply of gasoline, having evidently become stranded by the early closing hours.

DANGEROUS HABIT

Youngsters returning to the Mahoning school at noon have the bad habit of walking in the street along North Cedar street. At the rate motorists use this street it is a dangerous habit and one that should be curbed immediately.

FLAGS AT BOOTHS

HERE ON TUESDAY

The local voting booths had flags flying before their doors all day on Tuesday, as a patriotic gesture. Workers for the various precincts were out bright and early here Tuesday morning, but the voters were a bit slower and it was not until late afternoon and early evening that the great majority of Seventh Ward voters found their way to the polls.

COMPLETE WORK AT
WARD BOCCO COURT

Bocce players at the Christopher Columbus Society on South Liberty street, are again using the bocce courts, the remodeling work having been completed.

A new surface was included in the work accomplished on the court, and a high wire fence was erected the entire distance around the court.

LOTS OF NEW WALKS

Many local residents are building new sidewalks in the Seventh Ward at the present time. Small stretches of walk are being constructed on almost every street in the district, and most of them replace old and broken concrete while others are entirely new walks.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

John Lombardo, of Washaw avenue, was a Youngstown visitor on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Barnes, West Clayton street, were Pittsburgh visitors during the week end.

Mrs. T. C. Rainey, of North Liberty street, who has been suffering with an eye infection, has recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Martone of Cherry street, spent the week-end with Mrs. A. Shaffer and daughter, of Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ezzo of Ellwood City, has concluded a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Domenick Velucci, of Wayne street.

Kenneth Moss, North Liberty street, who suffered an injury to his hand while at work a short time ago, is reported to be getting along nicely.

Mrs. Anna Mash, of 124 South Wayne street, has returned home after spending the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Warren, of New Galilee.

Rev. Dr. Duff Taken By Death

Pastor Of Carnegie Presbyterian Church For Over 40 Years Dies At Age Of 88

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10.—The Rev. Dr. Joseph M. Duff, father of James M. Duff, state GOP organization leader in Allegheny county, died today.

The passing of the retired Presbyterian clergyman, who would have been 88 years old in January, came as an especially severe blow to the son, falling on the eve of his father's political defeat.

The son had spent the entire election day afternoon and evening at the elder Duff's bedside in Newburg, Westmoreland county, and had been home only a short time when word came of his father's death.

Last year, Dr. Duff was bedfast in Pittsburgh hospital for several months but rallied and retired to his Westmoreland county farm. Father and son were extremely close, especially after the mother's death in 1939.

For more than 40 years, Dr. Duff had been pastor of the Carnegie Presbyterian church. He retired 20 years ago.

Dr. Duff leaves, in addition to his son James, the Rev. Dr. George M. Duff, pastor of Riverdale Presbyterian church of New York City, a son, and Mrs. H. R. Debeboise of South Orange, N. J.

Sabbath Services
At Temple Israel

Fall Season At Temple Israel Starts Friday Evening; Religious Schools To Start

Sabbath services Friday evening, Sept. 12, will mark the beginning of the fall season at Temple Israel. Rabbi Norman H. Diamond, who will officiate, is entering upon his seventh year of service with the temple.

Sunday morning, Sept. 14, from 10:30 until 12 o'clock noon, children who plan to attend the religious and Hebrew schools will be registered. Parents are urged to give this their attention so as not to delay class sessions.

Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, falls on Sunday evening, Sept. 21. Members who will not be in the city at that time are requested to communicate with N. J. Love, secretary, to obtain courtesy cards for other temples.

The children of members who are away at school receive the same courtesy. Similarly, Temple Israel will honor membership cards from out-of-town congregations. Non-members desirous of attending services can get full information from Mr. Love.

McAnlis Leaves
For Big Contest

East Brook Boy Will Compete For Right To Represent State At Livestock Show

Arnold McAnlis, East Brook high school student, and a member of the Future Farmers of America, will leave today for State College, accompanied by County Vocational Agricultural Supervisor E. C. Wiggins, and East Brook high school vocational supervisor Murry McJunkin, where he will compete tomorrow with ten other youths from Pennsylvania, for a position on the state judging team which will go to the American Royal Livestock Show at Kansas City next month.

McAnlis stood sixth in the preliminary contest held last June, and his score from the June contest, together with the score he makes tomorrow, will be averaged. If he is among the first four in the final count, he will be one of those picked on the team.

Last year, Lawrence County was represented by Donald Fox of Mt. Jackson, and county F. F. A. youths are hopeful that McAnlis will make the team, to give the county a representative for two successive years.

Sons Of Italy
Bocce Team Wins

Local Group Receives Championship Following Game Played At Cuyahoga Falls

Members of the Sons of Italy bocce team received the championship trophy following the bocce game played at Cuyahoga Falls Sunday afternoon.

Approximately 100 persons from New Castle attended to see the game and witnessed the local group capturing the trophy. Joseph Pagley was the manager of the group, and Al Scarazzo was the coach. Players included Joseph Pagley, Gabriel Petrucci, Armond Ascione, John Costa and Frank Cherby.

Following the game a delicious supper was served at six o'clock for the members of the Sons of Italy organization. In the evening a dance was featured. Transportation to and from Cuyahoga Falls was in charge of Vito Colelio.

Mister and Missus
Both Candidates

In the primary election on Tuesday, the Brenner family, of 1617 Huron avenue, was in evidence in both the party contests. C. Russell Brenner was a candidate upon the Democratic ticket for city council and won one of the two places.

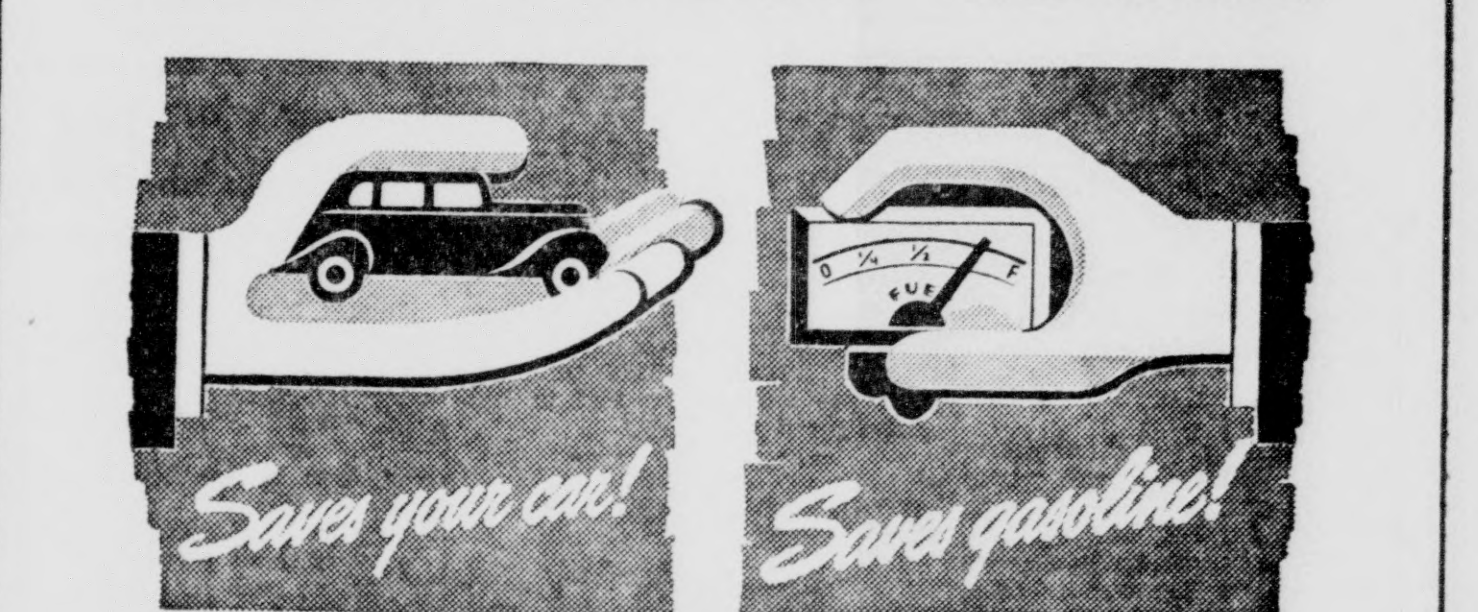

His wife, Juanita Brenner was a candidate upon the Republican ticket for school board and just missed nomination for one of the three places. But the mister and missus will be in the general election, after all. Mrs. Brenner was given one of the three Democratic nominations for school board.

Will Reopen Dormant Coal Mines In State

HARRISBURG, Sept. 10.—Long dormant soft coal mines in western Pennsylvania are being reopened, the State Department of Commerce today announced.

Closed since the early part of December, 1937, the Whitsett plant of the Pittsburgh Coal Company has resumed operations with 195 men employed in two shifts. Initial output is said to be about 800 tons daily but is expected to increase to 1200 tons daily.

Shut down since a strike 17 years ago, the No. 3 slope of the old Eleonora mine in Jefferson county soon will start operations that are expected to produce upwards of 300 tons daily. Although it has not been used since 1924 the mine, leased by Dr. F. A. Lorenzo, of Punxsutawney from the Rochester & Pittsburgh Company, is reported to be in almost perfect condition for quick operation. About 30 men will be employed at the start and the estimated 150,000 to 200,000 tons of coal remaining in the mine are expected to furnish steady employment for the men for several years. Although all coal was picked-mined when the mine last was working, operations to be started shortly will be by power driven machinery.

Two hundred miners will go back to work in Cambria county when the Johnstown Coal and Coke Co. resumes operations in the Logan No. 6 mine, Beaverdale, and Portage No. 10 at Portage. The former has been idle for two years while the latter closed last Spring.

Although mining operations have not yet begun, a force of men is now preparing the diggings by installing equipment, replacing props and repairing tracks and other machinery. Daily production at the start is expected to reach 300 tons in the Logan mine and 500 tons in the Portage mine. The latter mine has not previously been operated by the Johnstown company but was purchased after the Logan company closed in February, 1939.

Expansion Of Industry To Be Curtailed

Priorities Board Refuses To Sanction Expansion Of Civilian Industry

By JACK VINCENT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—President Roosevelt's new supply priorities and allocations board today announced that it would not permit expansion of civilian industry where it would involve use of materials needed for defense.

Board officials said that the decision virtually freezes all civilian plant capacity at its present level because there could be little if any expansion that would not violate the policy. The board's statement read: "Expansions of productive capacity to meet purely civilian demand cannot be undertaken at this time if the expansion would require the use of large quantities of material critically needed for defense."

With this statement, the board, headed by Vice President Henry A. Wallace, temporarily denied a proposal to expand the plant of the Tennessee-Eastman Corp., at Kingsport, Tenn., a manufacturer of plastics.

The expansion there would have allowed production of enough plastics to replace 66,000,000 pounds of critical defense materials, but the board held that materials to build the additional plant capacity could not be spared from the defense program.

Urge Increase In Gas Prices

By ERIC FRIEDHEIM
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A slight increase in retail gasoline prices to meet the eastern petroleum shortage was urged today by members of the special senate committee investigating the oil situation.

Sen. Maloney (D) Conn., chairman of the committee, declared that oil companies should be permitted to charge approximately one-half to one cent per gallon more to compensate for higher oil transportation costs.

The refusal of the supply board to consider allocation of substitute metals but this would delay completion of the pipe line for more than two years.

After nearly two weeks of public and secret hearings on the petroleum problem, Maloney commented that on the basis of testimony presented there is a potential shortage of 120,000 barrels of oil in normal daily deliveries to the Atlantic seaboard. This shortage can be wiped out, Maloney explained, by full use of railroad tank car facilities.

Because of the higher cost in transporting oil by railroad car, the oil companies should be authorized to increase the price of their products slightly, Maloney contended.

News Briefs From City Hall

Mrs. John Mitros, 321 Boyles avenue, reported to police yesterday that Saturday someone stole the wheels, coaster brake and handle bars of her son's bicycle and later the thieves returned and stole the frame. It was a Goodrich bicycle, color maroon and cream.

Marion DeLone, Cameron avenue, reportedly fell in a depression on the West Washington street cartway.

Someone stole one dozen shirts from the P. & L. E. railroad freight house on Grove street last night.

TAR CATCHES FIRE

City firemen were called to the vicinity of the rear of the Lawrence Savings & Trust company this morning at 10:45 o'clock, where tar which was being heated for application on a roof nearby caught fire. The damage was small.

NOPE! THOSE TOMMY GUNS AREN'T VERY ACCURATE--

BUT THEY POP AGAIN MOST FREQUENTLY!

WITH THE PISTOL, SAHIB, YOU DOWNED FOUR OF THEM-- SHALL WE TRY AGAIN?

NO-- IT'S NO USE, PUNJAB-- THERE ARE STILL SIX OF THEM WITH THE TOMMY GUNS, AND SOON THEY'LL BE REINFORCED--

BUT WHAT I CAN'T FIGURE IS THAT PHONE CALL THAT WARNED THEM JUST AS WE WERE READY TO MOVE IN ON THEM-- HOW COULD ANYONE ON THE OUTSIDE HAVE FOUND OUT WHO I AM?

AH-- I FEAR I KNOW THE ANSWER.

IN SOME WAY OUR INDIAN MESSENGER FAILED TO SEND THE TELEGRAM-- IF IT FELL INTO THE HANDS OF SCUTTLE--

Plant Wire Chief Honored By Bell

Austin A. Webb Receives Award Symbolizing 35 Years Of Service

AUSTIN A. WEBB

Austin A. Webb, plant wire chief in this city for the Bell Telephone Company, was honored at a testimonial luncheon Tuesday, and received a service pin symbolizing thirty-five years of service with the Bell Company.

Mr. Webb, who lives at 423 Park avenue, has been plant wire chief here since November 1, 1928. His thirty-fifth year with the company was completed on September 6.

Among telephone men who came from Pittsburgh for the luncheon were David R. Ingalls, general plant manager, who presented the service pin; Charles A. Bolen, general plant employment manager and Clarence E. Fay, division plant superintendent. Other guests included Walter E. Peters, plant wire chief, Sharon, Russell S. Henry, plant wire chief, Rochester, and Leo C. Wurdack, plant wire chief, Sewickley. Also at the luncheon, held at a dining hall on route 422, were Kenneth H. Beck, district plant superintendent; Robert T. Bates, district plant engineer; Charles W. King, district construction foreman; and Fred M. Alexander, district chief clerk, all of New Castle.

Mr. Webb is a member of Western Pennsylvania Chapter, Telephone Pioneers of America. This is an organization of veteran telephone workers. It has a membership of about 51,000 in the United States and Canada. He is affiliated with the Masonic fraternity, and is an official of the First Presbyterian church and Sunday School.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Reiter and children, H. B. Roberts and daughter Florence, all of New Castle, spent the day at the home of his son, Paul Roberts on Jackson boulevard, Sunday.

The missionary women of the Christian church will hold their regular monthly meeting and luncheon at the home of Mrs. Winston Ramsey at 431 W. Glenaven avenue in Youngstown.

Honor Veteran Of Civil War

GROVE CITY, Sept. 10.—Local patriotic groups honored George F. Reynolds, Grove City's only veteran of the Civil War, on his 97th birthday, which he celebrated in the Grove City hospital. He has been bed-fast for several weeks.

Mr. Reynolds has had an adventurous life. He enlisted September 18, 1861, in the 76th Pennsylvania Zouaves, and took part in fighting at Cold Harbor, Charles River, S. C., and with Grant in the Richmond campaign, serving three years. Returning to civil life, he engaged in rafting and logging on the Susquehanna River, and he remains vivid memories of life on the river. Later, he went west and assisted in building railroads that spanned the continent.

Mr. Reynolds has been in the hospital since last April, where he carries on the institution's tradition of caring for Civil War veterans, established by the late William H. Gilmore, who spent four years there before he died at the age of 97, on September 28, 1940.

Former Resident Called By Death

Word has been received by W. C. Sturgeon of Grove City, of the death of his sister, Anna C. Sturgeon of Palo Alto, Calif., who died at the home of her brother, Harry B. Sturgeon, of Palo Alto.

Mrs. Sturgeon was formerly of New Castle, having many friends here. She was employed as a house lady for Stanford University for many years having charge of four girls' dormitories. Before going West, Mrs. Sturgeon had been employed as bookkeeper for the Rice Brothers confectioners in this city for a number of years.

In addition to her two brothers, W. C. Sturgeon and H. B. Sturgeon, she also leaves another brother, Jerry Sturgeon of Corvallis, Ore. Funeral services will be announced later.

Shenango-Evans City Game Is Re-Scheduled

Evans City Signs New Coach; Decides To Play All 1941 Games

UNION WILL RELY ON RAZZLE DAZZLE

Shenango Township high will inaugurate the 1941 football season on Friday afternoon after all! Officials of the East New Castle institution today were informed that Evans City had secured a new coach and will play its regularly scheduled 1941 games.

Early Monday, Shenango officials were informed that Evans City's coach had resigned. Since the school was unable to secure a replacement, Evans City's 1941 games were all postponed. Now that the school has succeeded in signing a new tutor, Evans City has re-considered and will go through with the games.

The clash, booked for Shenango field, will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Gladdened by the fact that the game will be played, Shenango's gridgers have resumed strenuous drills. The squad is displaying an abundance of "moxie."

Has Three Vets

Coach Frank Nocera is fashioning his 41 production around three lettermen—Stanley Majeski, right halfback; Andy Semansky, an ex-lineman being converted into a back, and Mike Stoltica, another back. Andy Staph, last year's regular center, is in school but is undecided as to whether or not he will continue gridiron warfare.

His absence has left Coach Nocera with his biggest gridiron problem. The mentor is endeavoring to replace Staph with three inexperienced pivot men, Harold Marks, Tom Sweet and Walter Pruitt. Staph's return would release a huge load off of Nocera's back.

Walter Pruitt, Nick Hordie, Ralph Hiler and Edgar Perdue shape up as promising wingmen. Despite his small size, Hiler is exhibiting A-1 quality. John Mohrbacker, a reserve last season; Frank Adamczyk and David Francescone, another '40 reserve, are staging a battle for the tackle slots.

Lloyd Overmeyer, Reese Thomas, Andy Kitzko and Bob Kalaianen seem to be leading the parade for the guard posts. Stanley Majeski, Andy Semansky, Mike Stoltica, Charles Stitt and Pete Moran represent the outstanding backfield material.

Close to 30 candidates answered Coach Nocera's call. "Despite the lack of experience, the boys are displaying incredible spirit and fight. We will be a scrappy gang this year," the genial East New Castle major domo asserted.

UNION IS PREPARED Union Township high, pining for Friday night's opener against Ellwood City at Ellwood City, will be one of those "razzle dazzle" type of teams this season.

Coach John J. Susko intimated as much during an interview today. "Due to the lack of weight and the fact that we have a pony backfield, we have to resort to the razzle dazzle style of football," the ex-Westminster star said.

May Surprise Fans From a Scotland Lane operative we're informed that Union's opponents are in for a load of surprises. The blue and white gridsters are mastering the befuddling (to opponents) system surprisingly well.

Union high's probable starting lineup will find Brown and Cumberlandidge or Presnar at end, Kirsh and Giering at tackle, Sniezek and Womer at guard and Annarella at center. J. Kline will quarterback the eleven with F. Kline or H. Dougherty filling the halfback posts. Jaskolka or P. Dougherty will get Susko's nod for the fullback assignment.

BESSEMER DRILLS

Bessemer high's energetic squad is rounding into good early season condition. The Cementers' opener, billed for Saturday, September 20, pits the Capezuti coached machine against Hubbard, O., at Bessemer.

Reports from Bessemer will indicate that the red and black pigskin band will be a bit weaker than the 1940 juggernaut.

Minneapolis Wins Home Run Derby; K. C. Records 168 Double Plays

Louis F. Klein of the pennant winning Columbus Red Birds annexed the 1941 American Association league batting championship. The right-handed infielder from New Orleans nabbed the coveted corner with a 370.1 mark. Klein participated in 111 games, banging out 134 hits.

Lou Novikoff, baseball's Mad Russian, finished second with a 369.8 gait in 90 games. "Babe" Barna, who took part in 142 games and led the loop during most of the campaign, followed the Milwaukee Mad Russian with an imposing 334 mark. He rapped out 174 hits. The Minneapolis clipper was followed by teammate Otto Denning with a 329.4 pace. Glenn McQuillen of Toledo finished in fifth place with a 329.3 mark.

Minneapolis walked away with the home run derby. Big Ab Wright patted out 26. Barna came next with 24 roundtrippers.

Columbus dominated the runs batted in division. Berthold Haas chalked off the honors with 131 runs batted in. Raymond Sanders finished second with 119. Kansas City knocked off the double play honors, marking off 168 twin killings. "Babe" Barna was the leading base stealer with 29 purloins.

Dodgers-Cards Play Twin Bills

Rain Curtails Play On Tuesday, Giants Defeat Pirates In Tenth

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—While the New York Yankees, champions of the American League, continued their preparations today for the great world series crowd that will be packed in their stadium next month, the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals hoped for a let-up in inclement weather in the Mid-West to enable them to get on with the business of winning and losing the National League pennant.

Both clubs were rained out yesterday, bringing on today's doubleheaders, with the Dodgers against the Cubs at Chicago and the Cards against the Philadelphia Phillies at St. Louis. The Dodgers had scored one run when their game was washed away after the first half of the second inning. The Cards couldn't even get their series opener with the Phils started.

Giants Trim Pirates

Inasmuch as the Dodgers are against the Cubs and the Cards against the Phils for the last time this season, a wash-out of today's double bills would take them off the schedules permanently.

In games played yesterday, the New York Giants tied the Pittsburgh Pirates in the eighth, when Babe Young hit one home run, then beat the Pirates in the 10th, 4 to 2, when the fancy first baseman converted a second time, and the Cincinnati Reds out-lasted the Boston Braves, 9 to 7.

The Yankees coasted a step nearer the end of the season and remained 20½ games in front by virtue of an eighth-inning home run by Tommy Henrich—his 28th—which turned back the St. Louis Browns, 1 to 0. Chandler taking the decision over Harris.

The Boston Red Sox took a firmer hold on second place with a 6 to 1 victory over the Detroit Tigers, coupled with the Chicago White Sox loss by 7 to 2 to the Washington Senators. In a night game Cleveland's Indians, downed the Philadelphia Athletics, 13 to 7.

DODGERS' WORKHORSE

BROOKLYN—Kirby Higbe of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is the National league's workhorse. Higbe has appeared in 40 games this season and stands a good chance of bettering the league's mark of 54.

Semi-Finals In Golf Tourney To Be Reached Soon

County Championship Title Will Be Decided In Near Future

MANY MATCHES ALREADY PLAYED

With many matches already played, the semi-finals should be reached during the present week in the county championship golf tournament, which is being played at the Sylvan Heights course.

Herman "Hackett" Kennedy, who has always been one of those who has had to be reckoned with for the title, has already reached the semi-finals, but also moving along in that direction are Marty Segedi, Pete Dimco, Louis Mallis, Andy Segedi, Tony Ottaviano, Stan Bukowski, and Steve Yeager.

In reaching the semi-finals, Kennedy has defeated Ted Lach and Alex Dutkin, two mighty tough opponents.

The finals have already been reached in the second flight, and the honors will be played for in the near future by Street Commissioner William G. Fleming and Ted Bukowski.

The third flight is moving along more slowly, only a few matches having been played.

The results of matches played to date are as follows:

First Flight

First Round—Stan Bukowski defeated Dom Dimco; Steve Yeager defeated Ed Kardish; Marty Segedi defeated Timmy Lombardo; Frank Lasso defeated Marty Kovach; Louis Mallis defeated Angelo Cimini; Mitty Macioce defeated Charles Pezzi; Pete Dimco defeated Sam Macioce; George Hahn defeated Tony Lobozzo; James Gaione defeated Adolph Cimini; Andy DeLorenzo defeated Andy Justine; Jackie Snyder defeated Joe Pastin; Ted Lach defeated Frank DeMauro; Herman Kennedy defeated Stan Kardish; Alex Dutkin defeated John Hodge; Carl McIltrout defeated Fred Lombardo; Tony Ottaviano defeated Frank Pezzi.

Second Round—Marty Segedi defeated Frank Lasso; Louis Mallis defeated Mitty Macioce; Pete Dimco defeated George Hahn; Andy DeLorenzo defeated James Gaione; Tony Ottaviano defeated Jackie Snyder; Herman Kennedy defeated Ted Lach; Alex Dutkin defeated Carl McIltrout.

Third Round—Herman Kennedy defeated Alex Dutkin.

Second Flight

First Round—Tony Lattiano defeated Dario Ottaviano; Frank Summers defeated T. T. Clark; Ted Bukowski defeated Joe Gianguillo; Dave Perry defeated Don Wyman; Art Prioletti defeated Norm Nocera; Wayne Harper defeated George Komarc; William G. Fleming defeated H. M. Anderson; Joe Smith defeated Ken Hawsell.

Second Round—Frank Summers defeated Dario Lattiano; Ted Bukowski defeated Dave Perry; Art Prioletti defeated Wayne Harper; William G. Fleming defeated Joe Smith.

Third Round—Ted Bukowski defeated Frank Summers; William G. Fleming defeated Art Prioletti.

Third Flight

First Round—Andy Fleischer defeated Wilbur Coates; Dave Aston defeated Andy Segedi; Abe Jackson defeated Earl Yoho.

State College Has Poor Grid Outlook

Only Five Lettermen Report To Head Coach Bob Higgins For 1941 Season

Army Took Several Fine Looking Prospects, Schedule Rather Tough

By LEONARD APPELBAUM
(International News Service Staff Writer)
STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 10.—Coach Bob Higgins' pessimism over a strain today when he cast an appraising eye on 41 Pennsylvania State college football huskies limbering up on New Beaver field.

"My boys were really patriotic this year," Higgins observed. "Mike Garbinski, the only regular line man scheduled to return, joined the army this summer. Then, as if that wasn't enough, three of my best reserve backs, Cap Bailey, Len Gramley and Sonny Rice, followed suit."

Five Lettermen
"With only five lettermen among the six seniors, 11 juniors and 24 sophomores on the squad, I don't see how we can do as well as last year when we won six, tied one and lost only to Pittsburgh."

Although Higgins feels Garbinski's loss, he still is in accord with the national defense program. His own brilliant football career was interrupted by the first world war when he was sent overseas in 1917 as a second lieutenant, and he served with distinction in France.

But he will be making "mountains out of mole hills" if he fashions a forward wall this year which approaches the heralded "seven-mountain line" headed by 1940 all-American center Leon Gajek. From end to end, the blue and white lost six by graduation and one, Garbinski, via the draft.

The backfield also was hard hit when Chuck Peters, regular tailback, John Patrick and Craig White received their sheepskins. All were regulars with Patrick bearing the brunt of the field goal kicking assignments.

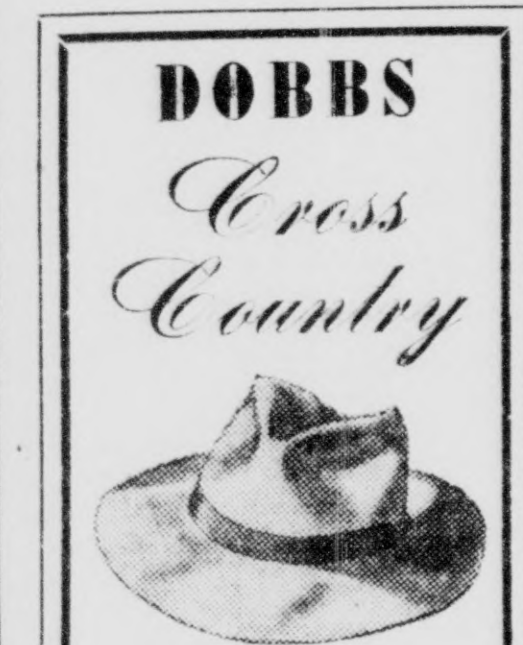

No Experienced Linemen
"We will have a line which will be composed of inexperienced men this year," Higgins said, "with the exception of Mike Kerns, reserve tackle, who earned a letter last year. The backfield shapes up fairly well with Captain Len Krouse snatching passes from the right half post, and 'Pepper' Petrella, pint-sized halfback, always a threat."

But Bill Smaltz, 190-pound fullback from Allentown, is the only returning regular at that position, and the bulky senior will probably handle the plunging, passing and kicking assignments. Sparky Brown has been switched from fullback to left half where he will alternate with Petrella, physically unable to stand 60 minutes with the 200-pounders in the opponent's line.

The Nittany Lion coach emphasized that Garbinski, along with 300-pound Len Frketch, who will not return to school, will be missed during the 1941 campaign. "We have a tough nine-game schedule to go through this year," he said. "Why don't they draft coaches, too?"

Needs Good Ends
Along with the prospect of developing a couple of dependable ends from six inexperienced candidates, Bob Davis, Monongahela; Wilbur Van Lente, Edgely, and John Potkian, Hiller, are the most promising.

Other positions will be filled by sophomores and reserve juniors and seniors when the curtain folds back to reveal the 1941 Nittany Lion varsity which will face a highly-touted Colgate eleven at Buffalo, N. Y., October 4. After that, and on successive week-ends, Penn State faces the following teams:

Bucknell University, home; Temple University, away; Lehigh University, home; New York University, away; Syracuse University, home; West Virginia University, home; University of Pittsburgh, away; and University of South Carolina, away.

Big Ten Squads Start Practice

Eyes Turn On Ohio State Where Coach Paul Brown Will Take Charge

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—College football made its first step toward the center of Mid-Western sports attention today as all the Big Ten teams, as well as Notre Dame and scores of other non-conference eleven, opened practice for the 1941 campaign.

In the Big Ten, attention centered on Minnesota's defending conference champions, who look as though they may repeat, and on Ohio State, where a new coach, Paul Brown, will seek to better the Buckeyes' grid fortunes.

Indiana Is Threat
Also prominent in the Big Ten picture are Indiana, hailed as a possible threat to the Gophers' title aspirations, and Michigan, where interest will be aroused by Fritz Crisler's efforts to get along without Tommy Harmon. Forest Evaschewski and other greats of recent seasons.

Northwestern started practice with the same problem it had last year—to find an adequate line to protect the operations of a surplus of fleet backs.

Strength is spread all through the Conference, with Purdue listed as a "dark horse" along with a potentially strong Wisconsin team, and with both Iowa and Illinois considered as somewhat unknown quantities, but troublesome, as usual.

Along with Ohio State, Notre Dame also took up under a new coach, Frank Leahy, formerly of Boston college, who succeeded Elmer Layden when the latter be-

Sammy Angott Is Under Suspension For Failure To Defend His Title

(International News Service)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Sept. 10.—Summy Angott, lightweight boxing champion from Kentucky, was suspended today by the National Boxing association for failure to defend his title in over six months.

In suspending the fighter, the N. B. A. ruled that the suspension would be lifted—if and when Angott defends his title against Lev Jenkins, Bob Montgomery, California Jackie Wilson or Ray Robinson.

Meanwhile, a committee appointed to study ways and means of carrying on an "open war" with Promoter Mike Jacobs and the New York State Athletic commission for their alleged monopoly of the big time boxing boys, was scheduled to report to the 23rd annual convention today.

Joe Triner, association president, called for the open warfare against the "Jacobs monopoly" in his opening address to the convention, and then appointed the committee.

came commissioner of pro football. The Irish, according to Leahy, are "a fine looking lot of boys," and they probably will continue to knock over some of the country's better aggregations.

In general, practice sessions began with the prospect for an all-around good year for Mid-Western football despite the draft and other effects of the national defense drive.

Mrs. Nolan Loses In Golf Tourney

Is Defeated By Fort Worth Star In First Round Of National Tourney

Mrs. Thomas E. Nolan, who qualified in handy fashion Monday in the national women's golf championship being played at Brookline, Mass., lost out in the first round of match play Tuesday to Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, Texas, after shooting a fine 42 going out, and being but one down at the turn.

Mrs. Nolan made a strong start, winning the first two holes, but followed this up by losing the next two, and went one down on the eighth. Mrs. Goldthwaite won the first four holes coming in to gain a five-hole advantage, which was too much for Mrs. Nolan to overcome.

Mrs. Goldthwaite shot a fine brand of golf, but Mrs. Nolan was also putting up a good game, having a score of 42 going out to Mrs. Goldthwaite's 41. Mrs. James H. Heim of Reno, Nev., who was also one of the favorites, was eliminated by the same score by Margery H. Nichols of Yonkers, N. Y.

LOU GETS CHANCE AT 'SLIPPING JOE'

he admittedly has begun to slip and personal problems won't help him either to get into condition or to fight.

Nova may have been luckier than he thought when he was being shooed around to make room for Billy Conn as challenger, and kept constantly tied in knots by half-promises and the maddening dusting off he kept getting. A few months probably have made a tremendous difference in Louis. It may be that he is ripe for the plucking now.

May Not Be Defeated
Nova is comparatively young and coming on and has all to gain against a champion who has begun to go and who is a little tired of being rich but deprived of a chance to enjoy himself because of the peculiar profession that earned him his luxury. The thrill of conquest has left him, too, after 19 title defenses.

He may get a lift out of the prospect of making it 20 successful defenses, then going into the army as an undefeated champion, who will come back some day for one big splash trying to regain the crown from some third-rater who will survive an elimination tournament and become a successor.

He undoubtedly will like the added wealth that will come to him against Nova, but way back in Louis' head must be shimmering his own slow-moving thoughts on all the queer, quick turns life has taken for him lately.

Officials Explain New Football Rules
William "Bill" Evans, president of the W. P. A. L. and Walsh of Pittsburgh, a football official, came to New Castle senior high last evening and for an hour and a half or so explained the changes in the 1941 football rules.

Present at the meeting were Head Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh, Assistant Coaches William Bill Kler, George Gipe, and Coach Paul Cuba of New Castle. High Coach Art Alexander of Washington High, Coach Austin Cowmeadow and Assistant Coach Bill Wallace of Ben Franklin High, Coach John Susko of Union High, Coach Hank Nocera of Shenango and Coach Bill Capozzulo of Besen.

Each of the three county coaches also had their assistants at the meeting. Bridenbaugh had most of the New Castle High first string players at the meeting. The general opinion was that the meeting was of a most beneficial nature.

New Brighton Woman Killed In Accident

Fatal Collision Occurs On Zelenople Road Near North Star School

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 10.—One woman was killed and another seriously injured last night in an automobile accident which occurred at 8:15 o'clock at the intersection of Route 488, Wurtemburg-North Sewickley road, and Route 238, Ellwood-Zelenople road, at the North Star school.

Victim of the fatal accident was Miss Elizabeth Davis, 76, of 926 Tenth avenue, New Brighton, and seriously injured was her sister, Mrs. Stanley H. Lemley, 63, of the same address.

Stanley H. Lemley, 63, driver of the car, also suffered a right shoulder fracture and other injuries. Mrs. Davis died at the Ellwood hospital last night at 9:20 o'clock from a fractured skull and other injuries. The Lemleys are confined to the local hospital where Mrs. Lemley suffering from multiple fractures, is in an unconscious state, police reported today.

According to Private Buehler, of the Beaver state police who investigated the accident, the collision occurred when Lemley, going from Wurtemburg south toward North Sewickley, drove onto the main highway colliding with a car driven by Elmer E. Daufen, 19, of Fomble. The Daufen car was travelling in the direction of Zelenople. Lemley told police that he had stopped at the intersection and did not see the approaching car.

Daufen was accompanied by his father, Jesse Daufen, of Fomble. They received only minor injuries. The Lemley car, was damaged to the extent of $150, and the Daufen car, was damaged to the amount of $550, the police officer said.

The body of Miss Davis was removed to the Scott funeral home, Beaver Falls.

Japan To Evacuate All Nationals From British Empire

(International News Service)
TOKYO, Sept. 10.—Three Japanese ships will soon be sent to various parts of the British empire to evacuate Japanese nationals, the foreign office announced today.
An official communique said:
"In view of the radical increase of late in the number of Japanese nationals residing in various parts of the British empire who are desirous of returning home, the Japanese government has decided to dispatch three passenger vessels to bring them back to Japan."
"One ship will be sent to, the Straits Settlements, another to India, the Near East and East Africa, and a third to Europe to carry newly appointed diplomatic, military and naval attaches and bring back Japanese evacuees."
"These three vessels will leave Japan shortly. Preparations are now being made for their departure."
A British ship is expected here shortly to evacuate British residents of Japan.

Youth Drowns In Ohio River

(International News Service)
ALBUQUERQUE, Pa., Sept. 10.—Lawrence Bywaters, 18, was drowned Tuesday when he fell from a boat loading coal into a barge a half mile below Montgomery dam in the Ohio River.
The youth, whose home is in Virginia but who has been living in Beaver, was working with two brothers, Lloyd and Leonard, on the "Captain," a McCrady-Rodgers dredging boat, when he fell overboard.
The crew of the "O. A. Ackard" pulled him from the river 20 minutes later but first aid efforts failed to revive him.
